

Creative Interpreters: Young Guides At Louvre Abu Dhabi 2022

Creative Interpreters is an onsite program empowering students to explore the museum collection by inviting them to create unique and engaging ways to present our artworks using their own creativity and voice as Young Guides.

This program focuses on new artworks in the Louvre Abu Dhabi collection and uses learning resources and interpretation techniques to explore the artworks.

1. Launch

Creative Interpreters Project
22 September
Callout to schools

2. Teacher Training

Teacher Training Day
Online 28 September
Onsite 29 September

3. Research

Investigate the Artworks Museum Team shares Factsheets, Highlights of the Collection, Learning Resources Allowing two to three weeks for teachers to explore with students

4. Practice at the Museum

With a Museum Educator
Week of October 24
Teachers engage with the students on the selected artwork inside the museum

5. Practice at the Museum

Self-Led Visit With a Teacher
November
Teachers and students come to the museum to practice independently prior to the presentation day
Book Self-Led Visit via Call Centre
600 565566

6. Teacher Training and Check In

Online Session
23 November
Teachers are invited for technical and logistics session ahead of the presentation day

7. Presentation Day at the Museum

6 December
Presentation day led by the Young Guides

Creative Interpreters: Young Guides Resources

- Artwork Fact Sheet
- Highlights of the Collection at Louvre Abu Dhabi
- #MakeandPlay Videos
- Learning Resources
- Museum Voices 2019

Register Your School

Reference: Creative Interpreters 2022
Email: education@louvreabudhabi.ae
Call Centre: 600 565566

Follow us!

#LouvreAbuDhabi louvreabudhabi.ae

